

Women's Wellbeing Collective CIC Privacy Policy

Last Updated: December 2024

The Women's Wellbeing Collective is committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring that your personal information is handled responsibly. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your information when you interact with our website, social media accounts, and services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following information about you:

- Personal Information: Name, email address, phone number, and other details you provide when signing up for our services, newsletters, or events.
- Health Information: Only when voluntarily provided, such as preferences or goals related to health and wellbeing services.
- Technical Information: IP address, browser type, device information, and usage data collected through cookies and similar technologies.
- Social Media Interactions: Publicly available information when you interact with our social media pages (e.g., likes, comments, or messages).

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your information for the following purposes:

- To provide services, events, or workshops you sign up for.
- To communicate with you about updates, promotions, or offers.
- To improve our website, services, and user experience.
- To comply with legal obligations or protect our rights.

We will not sell, rent, or share your personal information with third parties for their marketing purposes.

3. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to enhance your browsing experience and gather insights about website usage. You can manage or disable cookies through your browser settings.

4. How We Protect Your Information

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures to safeguard your personal data, including secure servers, encryption, and limited access to your information. However, no system is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

5. Your Rights

Depending on your location, you may have rights regarding your personal data, including:

- Accessing, updating, or deleting your personal information.

- Withdrawing consent for data processing.
- Opting out of marketing communications.

To exercise these rights, please contact us at thewomenswellbeingcollective@gmail.com

6. Third-Party Links and Social Media

Our website and social media pages may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for their privacy practices, and we encourage you to read their privacy policies.

7. Children's Privacy

Our services are not directed at children under 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from them.

8. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The updated policy will be posted on our website with the "Last Updated" date.

9. Contact Us: If you have any questions or concerns about this Privacy Policy or how we handle your data, please contact us at:
